

SUMMARY

The purpose of the current issue is to provide factual information that is suitable for a range of student abilities, helping them to build upon existing background knowledge. The current issue gives students access to information on current topics that often correlate to science and social studies concepts. In this week's current issue, Moana 2 Movie, students will learn about a new animated movie titled Moana 2. In this movie, Moana goes on another adventure across the sea.

TOPIC WORDS

animated movie
ocean
island
wayfinder
nature
navigate theater

new character
sequel
sail
family

CONTENT - RELATED WORDS

read* story* title article

* These words are frequently used to communicate in both speech and print in social and academic settings. They are often referred to as core words or core vocabulary.

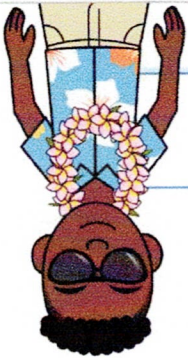

WEB RESOURCES

Preview links and videos related to this current issue:
Moana 2
Moana 2 trailer

Lessons Snapshot

Check out Today's Weather for some new tropical options!

Palm Tree Craft

• This week's craft is:

Exploring Surface Tension

• This week's science experiment explores:

Activities

Oceania

• This week's Extension Activity is about:

Extension Activity

Joey's Locker
Spotlight: Wayfinder

Standards Connection: Current Issue

News2you Current Issue
Communication Board

RELATED RESOURCES

Lesson

1 Read Aloud

2 Structured/

Foundational Reading

Read a variety of texts to gain information.

Objective(s)

Read a variety of texts to gain information for a purpose and demonstrate print concepts.

Learning Objective(s)

Read informational texts to gain information.

Learning Goal

I will remember one fact about Moana 2 Movie.

Activate Background Knowledge

Discuss the newspaper topic.

Ask a focus question such as "What do you know about _____?"

Talk with students about _____.

Instructional Routine

Before Reading

1. Introduce the Topic Words: animated movie sail new character sequel

family ocean island

nature navigate theater

wayfinder

2. Display the current issue (Advanced or Higher level). Read the title.

3. Preview the article and discuss the topic. Point out photographs or symbols that support the topic.

4. Introduce the Learning Goal: SAY: Today, your goal is to remember one fact about the article.

5. Review the learning goal with students:

I will remember one fact about Moana 2 Movie.

During Reading

• Read aloud with fluency and expression.

• Call attention to important events, actions and vocabulary by changing the tone in your voice.

• Comment on people, places and events as you read aloud.

Materials

- News2you Current Issue
- (Advanced, Higher, Regular or Simplified) Communication Board
- Standards Connection: Current Issue

