

The Agricultural Revolution: Crash Course World History #1

- 1) Describe the process it takes to make a cheeseburger.
- 2) Chronicle how humans foraged and hunted in order to subsist 15,000 years ago.
- 3) Identify and analyze the origins of some produce and crops.
- 4) Point out the advantages and disadvantages of switching from a hunting-gathering society to an agriculture-based society.
- 5) Rationalize how the production of grains makes cities possible.
- 6) Compare and contrast the advantages and disadvantages of farming.
- 7) Outline the pros and cons of a life of herding in relation to a life of foraging and agriculture.
- 8) Give some examples of domesticated animals and what humans do with them.
 - A
 - B
 - C
- 9) Explain the theory of how population pressure necessitated the agricultural revolution.

10) Point out why YOU think the agricultural revolution was necessary for the advancement of the human race.

11) Name and explain some of the bad things that come with the introduction of complex civilizations.